

A group for those who love all things gaming!

South-West Gamers is a group based, social activity for people with a disability. It provides a place to interact with those who share the same interest in having fun and enjoying games.

We have multiple game consoles and a huge variety of games to ensure everyone's genre and interest are catered for including SEGA, ATARI, PC, Sony PlayStation, Nintendo Switch and Xbox, and all the best new games.

Participate in weekly competitions that includes races, tournaments, friendly rivalries and many more game-based activities, all in pursuit of having a good time with new friends.
